What Is this Lawsuit About?

Plaintiffs allege that Defendants, including the named Bank of America, NatWest, Nomura, UBS, Citigroup, and Jefferies entities, conspired to fix the prices of European Government Bonds in the primary and/or secondary markets.

In the primary market, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants furthered this conspiracy by agreeing to artificially inflate European Government Bond prices at auction through a process known as "overbidding" and to otherwise coordinate their bidding strategies, thereby outbidding rivals and raising the benchmark for resale in the secondary market.

In the secondary market, Plaintiffs allege that Defendants, in control of the supply of newly issued European Government Bonds, agreed to fix bid-ask spreads. This includes, Plaintiffs allege, agreeing on higher prices to charge investors for European Government Bonds. Defendants are alleged to have coordinated this scheme via online chatroom communications, where they explicitly fixed prices and bids and exchanged other sensitive, confidential information necessary to carry out the scheme.

Plaintiffs allege they were injured by these artificially inflated prices and fixed bid-ask spreads each time they transacted in European Government Bonds directly with a Defendant (or Defendant affiliate) and therefore pursue claims under the Sherman Act for themselves and on behalf of the class.

The Settling Defendants deny any liability, fault, or wrongdoing.

What Does the Settlement Provide?

To settle the claims against them (as detailed in the 2024 Stipulation), the named Bank of America, NatWest, Nomura, UBS, Citigroup, and Jefferies entities agreed to pay a total of $80,000,000. If the Settlement is approved, the Settlement Amount, plus interest earned and less any Taxes, Notice and Administration Costs, Court-awarded attorneys' fees and Litigation Expenses, any service awards for Plaintiffs, and any other expenses approved by the Court will be divided among all Settlement Class Members who submit valid Claim Forms.
